ALL FORDS

The Columbia State advocates calling all the automobiles fords instead of car, auto or automobile. Well, there wouldn't be much to change in the neck of the woods except the capital letter for they are nearly all Fords now.

ROAD TO BE CLAYED

The red clay road below Mt.
Croghan which formerly tested the "cussin" capacity of travelers has been made into one of the finest pieces of road in the county by the simple process of rounding and sanding. We are not informed as to the cost of this work, but venture the statement that it cost less than half what it is worth.

If there is a stretch of road in Chesterfield county that should be sanded it is the three miles from Pageland to the State line on the Monroe road. This road is used perhaps more than any road leading to Pageland, and yet two or three days of rain puts it in a very bad condition.
The road is fairly well rounded and but little work would be necessary to put it in shape for a coat of sand. Probably there will never be a better time to do this work than just after crops are laid by.

Who will take the lead?

NEARLY HALF GONE

The time for Democrats of South Carolina to enroll their names on the club roll books of the party in the various precincts is nearly half gone, and there are many who have not been informed of the requirements. If a man votes in the August primary he must appear in person and write his name or make his mark on the club roll of his precinct. The facts that his name was on the roll two years ago and that he voted in the primary do not entitle him to vote this year. Every voter must get his name on the new book of his club. The books close on the last Tuesday in July.

Then, sometimes the enrollment of the voters on the club rolls is confused with the registration for voting in the general election. The two are entirely separate. The enrollment is for voting in the Democratic primary; the registration for voting in general election in November.
The registration board is publishing a notice of registration in each of the papers in this county so that no man may have reason to say he did not know. The man who has his registration certificate and who was allowed to vote two years ago in the general election is not required to register again. A registration certificate that was valid two years ago will be valid in the November election. Only those who have become of voting age since the last election, those who have moved, and those who for other reasons may not have registered will be required to produce a new certificate of registration.

Boy Accidentally Killed

Lonnie, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Belk Autry of Douglas, Ga., was victim of a fatal accident on Thursday, June 15. The little boy was playing on a bed when he fell forward on a pair of scissors, which entered the abdomen, causing death on the following day. Mr. and Mrs. Autry are natives of this section and are well known here.
A great many friends will sorrow with them in this sad bereavement.

LAND EXCHANGE

This space will be used by Pageland Insurance & Realty Company. It is our purpose to make it of interest to our customers. Any one desiring to purchase land is invited to read this column each week. If you fail to find in it a description of just the kind of property you want, see us and we will insert and advertisement for your benefit without charge to you. We pay by the year for this space, and it is free to our customers.

If you have land to sell, see us and make your price. It will cost you nothing to advertise in this column.

We want it distinctly understood, however, that we will not accept your advertisement unless the price is quoted, and that price must appear to us to be a fair market value of your property. Many persons think that fabulous prices can be obtained by listing and properly advertising real estate. On the other hand, many persons think land is listed at far above its selling price. We hope to protect both buyer and seller, and for that reason we will not accept for advertisement any property that is priced above its value. If you find in this column what you want, you can rest assured that the price is reasonable, in so far as we are competent to judge.

However, we do not guarantee values. No man should buy land without first inspecting it thoroughly. We will be glad to give you the benefit of our experience for all it is worth to you.

Our main object is to bring buyer and seller together. You may want to buy, or you may want to sell, or you may want to exchange your property for other property. Make known your wants to us, and let us serve you.
Look for our list of offerings next week.
